Cadiz, October 29. N. S.

THere are now in this Bay two Spanish Men of War, who will sail with the first opportunity of Wind, to join the Spanish Armada which cruises off Cape St. Vincent. The last week arrived here a Vessel from Argiers with 400 Portuguese redeemed out of Slavery; They tell us, that the Forces of that Government which marched the last Summer against the Emperor of Morocco, were come back, after having defeated several Parties of his Troops, and made a great Booty of Prisoners and Cattle; and that the Dey of Argiers intends to return into the Dominions of Muly Ismael the next year with a greater Army. The Moores are still before Ceuta, but have all this while made so little progress in the Siege, that we do not apprehend the Place to be in any danger.

Venice, Nov. 10. The Senate give out Commissions for new Levies to be made this Winter to augment their Forces in the Levant, and several Men of War are building, which will be ready for the Service of the next year. The News of the loss of the Popes Galley called the St. Alexander, is confirmed; she was cast away the 6th of the last month on the Coast of Calabria; and of 60 Soldiers with their Officers, and 200 Slaves that were on board her, few escaped. The last Letters from Dalmatia say, that the Morlaquins have lately made several Excursions into the Turkish Territories with good success; and in the last they defeated one of the Enemies Parties, and took 200 Prisoners.

Milan, Nov. 9. The German Troops continue their march in small Bodies through the Territories of the Republick of Venice and the Valtoline. The Marquis de Leganez, our Governor, is gone to Turin; and the Prince of Commercy to Vienna.

Turin, Nov. 12. The Marquis de Leganez arrived here the 8th Instant from Milan; The Mareschal de Catinat came hither the same day, having been met out of Town by the Duke of Savoy, and saluted by the Guns of the Citadel. The Rearmost of the French Troops passed the Mountains yesterday; all the Provisions and Ammunition they left in the Magazines here, are to be carried to the Citadel of Pignerol, and the Wagons and Mules, that are necessary for this purpose, are provided by the Dukes Order. The Magistrates of Pignerol have sent Deputies to his Highness to desire that the Town may be enclosed with a slight Wall, but they have been answered, That this is not in his power to grant, and that they may make their application to the French King to see if they can obtain it. A Review is appointed of all the Cavalry in the Dukes Service at Villanova, and it's believed the greatest part will be disbanded.

Warsaw, Nov. 17. The Crown General Jablonowski, has sent Deputies to the Confederated Forces, encamped near Lemberg, to propose to them all reasonable Satisfaction concerning their Arrears, and other Demands; But they refused to receive the Deputies in their Camp, and have chosen the Sieur Baranowski to be their General, and obliged him to take an Oath, that he will discharge that Trust faithfully; upon which the Crown General has sent to them to name a Place where Persons deputed on both sides, may meet to adjust their Pretensions. The Confederated Forces in Lithuania continue likewise together, and 'tis reported that they have defeated some Troops sent against them by Prince Sapieha their General. Several of the Senators labour very earnestly to reconcile the Misunderstanding between the Queen and Prince James, which first arose about dividing the late Kings Treasure, and has since been increased by new accidents, to such a degree, that the Prince does not visit her, tho' she was lately very ill. The French are not wanting to improve these Disorders; and their Ambassador employs all his Credit as well as the Money he has received from France, to make an Interest for the Prince of Conti. The Tartars that made the late Irruption into the Country about Lemberg, are retired with their Booty to Camnitz, but threaten to return very shortly, which occasions a great allarm on the Frontiers of this Kingdom. The Envoy from Muscovy, now residing here, has acquainted the Primate, that the Czar, his Master, is resolved to continue the War against the Turks and Tartars, and that great preparations are making throughout his Dominions for this purpose.

Vienna, Nov. 14. There passes at present nothing of moment in Hungary; the Troops on both sides being gone to their Winter Quarters; The Turks have strong Garisons at Belgrade and Temeswar, the first consisting of 8000, and the other of 5500 men; They have likewise posted Troops along the Save; And to secure the Country against their Excursions during the Winter, the Imperialists have lodged a sufficient number of Forces near the Frontiers. Count Tekeley, who served the last Summer in the Grand Signior's Army, and stayed at Belgrade some time after the Sultans departure, is ordered to return to Constantinople. The Imperial Officers have Orders to hasten their Recruits. And the Emperor's Council meet almost every day to find out ways to raise Money for the Service of the War the next year. The Imperial Ministers and the Venetian Ambassador have had several Meetings with the Envoy of Muscovy about renewing the Alliance against the Turks for 3 years. The Elector of Saxony designs in few days to return to Dresden.

Francfort, Nov. 21. Here is to be a Meeting on the 5th of the next month of the Deputies of the Circles of Bavaria, Franconia, Suabia, the Upper and Lower-Rhine, and Westphalia, to consult together about augmenting their Forces which are to serve on the Rhine the next Summer, as also to keep a sufficient Army on foot, as well in time of Peace as War, to defend their Frontiers against any sudden surprize from France. The Landtgrave of Hesse has left it to the Emperor to determine the Matter in dispute between his Troops and the Palatine concerning their Winter Quarters.
